The public is invited and encouraged to participate in all meetings of the Alpine County Redistricting Advisory Commission.

1. CALL TO ORDER/ROLL CALL

Commissioners William Young, Brian Peters, Stacey James, Eric Jung, and Kathleen Fox-Williams were present, in person and Commissioners Beverly Crawford and Jeanne Lear were present via Zoom.

1.1 Welcome/Introduction

County Clerk Teola Tremayne gave a brief introduction of Commissioners and presenters.

2. PUBLIC COMMENT

2.1 Correspondence

None.

3. MINUTES

3.1 None

4. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

4.1 None

5. NEW BUSINESS

5.1 Presentation by 2020 California Citizens Redistricting Commissioner Jane Andersen regarding State redistricting requirements.

Jane Anderson and Linda Akutagawa gave a presentation regarding Redistricting Basics.

In response to Commissioner Young's question regarding Census adjustments due to COVID-19, Andersen stated that the numbers are the numbers, but that it was a good point to bring up at a Public Information Meeting. Akutagawa stated that many counties had voiced concern over population swells related to seasonal recreation living and COVID-19.

5.2 Election of Chair and Vice-Chair

MOTION Jung / SECOND Peters nominating Jeanne Lear as Chair of the Alpine County Redistricting Advisory Commission.

AYES: Crawford, Young, Peters, Lear, Jung, Fox-Williams

MOTION CARRIED.

County Clerk Teola Tremayne explained that Stacey James would be appointed to the Alpine County Redistricting Advisory Commission at the Board of Supervisors Meeting on Tuesday, July 6, 2021.

MOTION Peters / SECOND Young nominating Stacey James as Vice Chair of the Alpine County Redistricting Advisory Commission.

AYES: Crawford, Young, Peters, Lear, Jung, Fox-Williams

MOTION CARRIED.

5.3 Activity List Progress Report

County Clerk Teola Tremayne provided and reviewed an outline of Commission tasks. Commissioner Jung suggested that Tremayne create a press release for Commissioners to distribute in their communities. There was discussion regarding Public Outreach and ways to get information out to the public for their input and involvement.

In response to Commissioner Jung's question whether the commissioners were subject to the Brown Act, County Clerk Teola Tremayne stated that the Commission was an Ad Hoc Commission and would not be subject to the Brown Act.

In response to Commissioner Jung's question regarding what percentage, if any, was allowable for delineation between districts, Tremayne stated that there was an allowable percentage and that she would provide the specifics at the next meeting.

5.4 Schedule dates for future meetings/public hearings

After some discussion, the Commission scheduled the next meeting for July 19, 2021 at 1:00pm at which time the Commission would approve a schedule of future meetings and Public Hearings per Chair Lear.

6. ADJOURNMENT

The Alpine County Redistricting Advisory Commission adjourned to their next meeting on July 19, 2021 at 1:00pm.

Dated: 06/30/2021

Seeking: Public Input and consideration!

Why does Redistricting matter to me?

Redistricting determines which neighborhoods and communities are grouped together into a district for purposes of electing a board member. Our advisory redistricting commission, which is made up of members of the public, will provide input in selecting the next district map for our supervisorial districts. You have an opportunity to share how you think district boundaries should be drawn to best represent your community.

Public Hearing and Commission Meeting Schedule - PUBLIC ATTENDANCE ENCOURAGED!

Date	Public Meeting
August 17, 2021, 10:00 a.m.	Board of Supervisors Public Hearing Information about the process and how the public can participate. Census data not yet available to the County. Public suggestions and questions encouraged.

November 16, 2021, 10:00 a.m.	Board of Supervisors Public Hearing and possible adoption of Alpine County Reapportionment (Ad Hoc Redistricting Advisory Commission attendance)

Our primary goal when developing election districts is to draw lines that respect neighborhoods, history and geographical elements. We are asking the public to let us know what they consider the boundaries of their neighborhood, their communities of interest and historical elements of significance.

Meetings will be held at the Alpine County Government Center - 99 Water St. Markleeville, CA
