COVID-19 Testing Update

As you can appreciate if you tune in to news media, any information about COVID-19 is a moving target, and this includes testing options. We will be providing updates each week, so that you are made aware of the current information as it applies to Alpine County. The following is for the week of February 8-12.

Bear Valley:

- PCR (the gold standard) testing is available Tuesday from 7AM – 7 PM, in Murphys at the Ironstone Winery at 1894 6 Mile Road. Available free to anyone.
- Alpine County is working on 2 other free options for Bear Valley, will require screening by County staff, and will focus on persons with symptoms consistent with COVID-19. Details to follow.

Kirkwood:

- Wednesday, at the Powerhouse, 11AM – 2 PM, drive through testing, self-swab, free, all eligible. Please pre-register at projectbaseline.com if you have not been tested previously, age 13-17 requires a legal guardian to be present.

Woodfords:

- Thursday at Fire Station 91 across from HHS, 11AM – 3 PM (same description as Kirkwood)
- For Alpine County residents or workers with symptoms – please call us on the Warm Line for screening

Dresslerville

- Washoe Tribal Health Center, testing available for all Hung-A-Lel-Ti community members on site or via a home testing program, call 775-265-8622 for more information.
